BRINGING OPERA TO ANNAPOLIS CHILDREN: Humperdinck's Hansel & Gretel Coming to Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts.

Annapolis Opera's Children's Opera in partnership with the Peabody Institute will present an abridged version of Hansel & Gretel at Maryland Hall. The music features popular opera music by Engelbert Humperdinck. The opera is performed in English, and is approximately 50 minutes long.

Saturday, January 31, 2015 at 10:30 a.m.

Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts, 801 Chase Street, Annapolis, MD 21401.

Cast members, Annapolis Opera and Peabody Institute staff will be available after the performance for a Q&A session about the production. This provides children the opportunity to meet the characters and families are encouraged to participate.

The Children's Opera is a program to educate elementary and middle school-aged children about music and opera. Each year the program produces a different children's opera and performs them in Maryland Hall. The artists that are performing are students from the Peabody Institute, which is in keeping with our mission to promote Mid-Atlantic region young artists.

STORY: Hänsel und Gretel is an opera by nineteenth-century composer Engelbert Humperdinck, who described it as a Märchenoper (fairy tale opera). The libretto was written by Adelheid Wette (Humperdinck's sister), based on the Grimm Brothers' Hansel and Gretel. It is much admired for its folk music-inspired themes, one of the most famous being the Abendsegen ("Evening Benediction") from Act 2. Humperdinck composed Hansel and Gretel in Frankfurt in 1891 and 1892. The opera was first performed in Weimar on December 23, 1893, and was conducted by Richard Strauss.

Photos may be taken during performance; no flash please. Press can come at 10:00 a.m. to set up if desired.
